

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Etta Bavilla,

Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,

Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13897

Order

Notice and Continued Motion to Extend Briefing Deadline

Date of Order: March 22, 2022

Trial Court Case Nos. 3DI-19-00119CI, 3DI-98-00362CR

Following a representation hearing, the superior court appointed the Office of Public Advocacy to represent the Appellant, Etta Bavilla, in this appeal. The Office of Public Advocacy subsequently moved in the superior court to vacate that appointment, and then filed a motion asking this Court to stay the briefing schedule in this appeal until the superior court resolves the pending motion to vacate. The State did not oppose the motion to stay, and the motion was granted.

The Office of Public Advocacy has now moved to extend the briefing schedule, explaining that it has filed a motion in the superior court for reconsideration of that court's ruling on vacating the representation appointment. The State has not filed an opposition.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED:

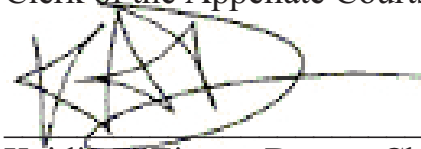

The motion to extend the briefing schedule in this appeal until the superior court issues an order resolving the Office of Public Advocacy's motion for reconsideration is GRANTED in part. The briefing schedule is stayed until the superior court resolves the Office of Public Advocacy's pending motion, or until April 24, 2022, whichever occurs first. If the superior court resolves that motion prior to April 24, 2022, the Office of Public Advocacy shall promptly notify this Court of the superior court's decision. If the superior court does not resolve the motion prior to April 24, 2022, the Office of Public Advocacy is directed to provide this Court a report on the status of the pending motion no later than April 24, 2022.
